WINE TYPE

Still wine

TASTING NOTE

This wine is a mono Rkatsiteli, grown in Kakheti. Being the flagship white variety of Georgia, this wine shows its potential and versatility of this grape. The wine is of lemon color, with pronounced fresh yellow fruit and citrus notes.

PRODUCER

Shilda Winery produces 600,000 bottles annually, with plans to expand to 2 million. Located in Shilda, the heart of Kakheti, our vineyards lie over 400 meters above sea level, nestled under the Caucasus Mountains. The alluvial soils, continental climate, and valleys descending from the slopes create ideal conditions for viticulture. Our diverse wine range reflects Georgia's rich winemaking traditions, showcasing the unique character of the land and native grape varieties. Every bottle embodies our commitment to quality and passion for sharing the essence of Georgian wine with the world.

VINEYARD INFORMATION

Cultivated using a dry-farmed double Guyot trellis system, this vineyard thrives on predominantly alluvial soils enriched with minerals. The region's continental climate further enhances the development of the grapes, contributing to their unique character and quality.

VINIFICATION

Classical vinification with direct pressing, followed by fermentation in stainless steel tanks. No oak involved.

PRODUCER

SHILDA Winery was founded in 2014, but the story began yet many years ago. The great love and respect for wine — this divine drink, encouraged the company founders to expand their family winery and to bring winemaking tradition to a new level passing this living heritage from generation to generation.

Our winery is located in the principal region of viniculture of Georgia — Kakheti, village Shilda. Located on 6 ha, SHILDA Winery is equipped with modern Italian and French facilities.
